ABOUT THE COUNCIL

This year, the New Mexico Equal Employment Opportunity and Diversity Council celebrates 24 years of exceptional professional development programs. The primary purpose of the organization is to assist Federal/ State/ Municipal governments, private sector and government contractors, tribal communities, universities, corporations, and other organizational entities in promoting the welfare and effective, full, and equitable participation of protected groups within member organizations. Each summer, the Council presents a two-day seminar in Albuquerque, to which organizations send:

- AA, EEO, HRD, or Diversity managers and supervisors
- Organizational and Agency managers, supervisors and associates
- Others with AA, EEO, HR, Diversity, or similar responsibilities

For a minimal fee, participants get an invaluable opportunity to network and learn how to become proactive in employment matters, avoiding costly lawsuits for their organizations and for themselves.
